

Hi Wanks,

Fantastic MM this Sunday! beer, food, wine, birthday cake, some optional hashing, football on the telly and a few discussions. Thanks to Harlot for hosting!

In attendance:

Bearded Clam, Hot Legs, Wankers Aweigh, Bavarian Creame, Cavity Search, Spermuccino, Diggity Diggity, Master Meat Finder, Granny Panties, Charlotte the Harlot, Blocox, Scooby, GFM, Bloody Cum Snot, Klitty Litter, Cockstalker, Men at Work, 58 and accounting, I Love Fat Chicks, Anal Licked a Hole, Pickle Pecker.

1) Hash cash:

not taking into account HdT expenses that we should be recovering through regos: $614

2) We have a new hash cash! GFM - thanks already and thanks to 58 for accounting well done!

3) Hash Calendar Issues: I planned on making an executive decision to keep discussion on this issue to a minimum, but, since everybody seemed to agree anyways we took a vote and decided that the calendar shall list all hash related events in town regardless of possible scheduling conflicts. No votes against.

4) Listserv issues.

I advised to get off the jhavelinah3 listserv if emails are not 'fun'. You can still get the starts etc. through the jhavelina_hareline listserv. We do not intend to punish the listserv committee with more rules and regulations to take care of. You can delete emails without reading.....

5) Motion to separate MM from the bbq since some hashers might not feel 'comfortable' to attend MM if it is at some wanker's place who they don't 'like'. We voted on three options:

- leave MM combined with the BBQ (4 votes for)
 - move MM to a bar (4 votes for)
 - alternate between MM at a bar and MM at the BBQ (4 votes for)
- decision postponed.... (there go 10 minutes of my life)

5) We have a new song meister! all hail Spermuccino! I hope that doesn't mean that he disappears now like his predecessor that shall not be named. I hope you don't object 3IY?

6) HdT planning is well on track. 48-ish people signed up so far.

On-On,
Bavarian
